

It is imperative that the privacy of Indiana homeowners is upheld. No one, regardless of institution, should have the right to make unsolicited phone calls to customers in their own homes. Please insure that my privacy is protect through the Indiana Telephone Privacy Act.